

About

"Lapinou" is an affectionate French term derived from the word "lapin," which means "rabbit." The "-ou" suffix acts as a diminutive, making "Lapinou" translate essentially to "little rabbit" or "bunny." It's commonly used as a term of endearment. The word carries connotations of softness, charm, and tenderness, evoking a sense of warmth and affection.

Mission

Lapinou aims to be the premier destination for discerning tastes, offering a curated selection of luxurious baked goods. We blend traditional craftsmanship with contemporary style, ensuring every bite is a memorable experience in elegance and flavour.

Lapinou means “little bunny” in French.
But here, it means something more:
It means warmth, gentleness, and things done with care.

Lapinou

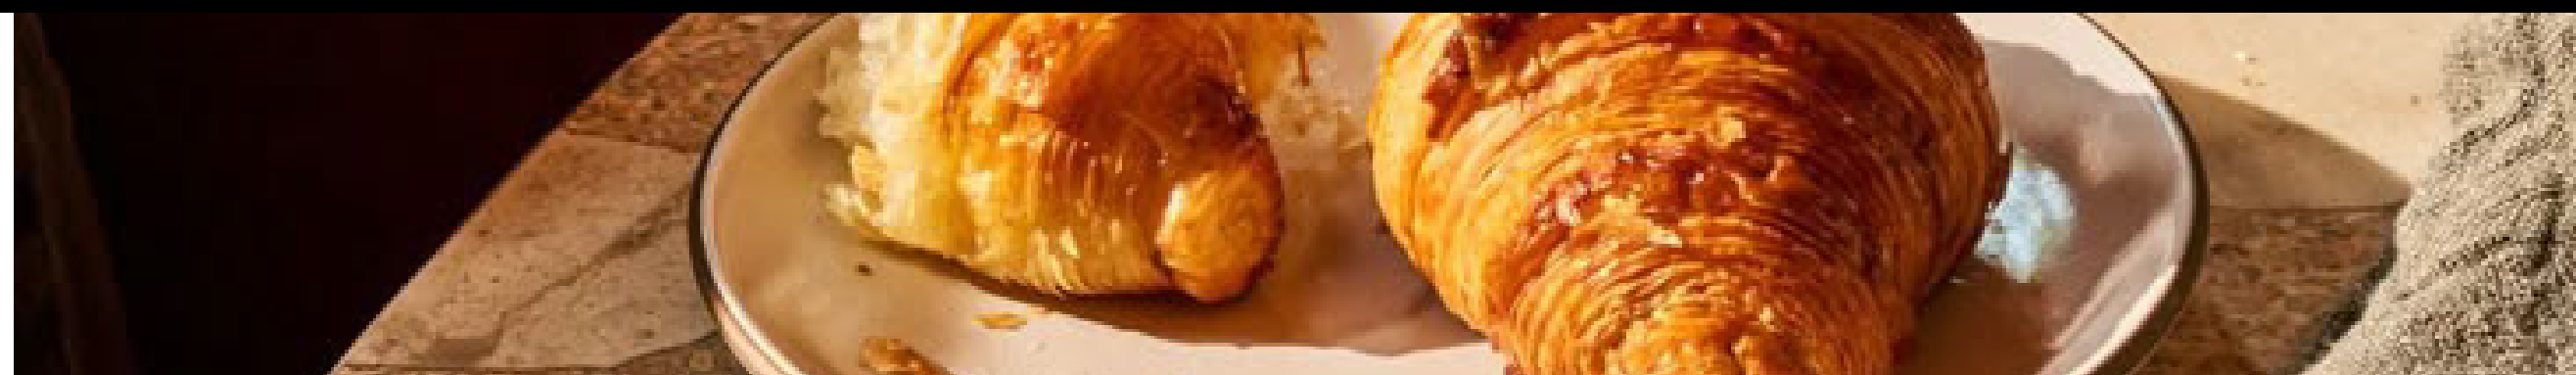

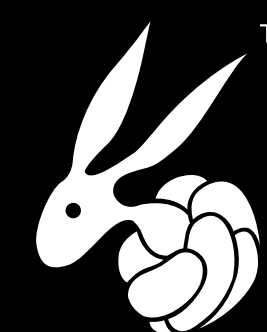

We don't bake to impress. We bake to embrace.
To fold tenderness into every layer, and offer you a little softness for the day.
